PERFORMING ARTS NEWS - Whole School Incursion

Last Friday Opera Australia’s Oz Opera presented Rossini’s The Barber of Seville. The comical-energy filled performance brought a smile to many faces. The children enjoyed joining in with the singing and were amazed by the clever use of colourful of sets and fabulous music. Many students had something positive to say... here a just a few...

PA Loren: I liked the Opera because it was funny.

PB Joanne: My favourite singer was Rosina. I liked her singing. She is a star!

PC Joseph: I liked the part when Figaro was singing.

PD Gandi: I liked the part when Rosina was locked in the house and the Count came to sing to her because he was in love.

3B Emily: I liked the part when Figaro scared Aunt Bartola

3B Rory: I think the Barber of Seville was very funny especially when Figaro shut the door on Aunt Bartola

4A Tayla: I really liked the sets and the way the singers moved them to change scenes.

4B Stephanie: I liked the costumes worn by the singers. It suited their part.

6A Michael: I liked Figaro’s song and the music played. I wish that they could sing for us again.

6D Eva: I really liked the way the lady played the piano during the performance

6D Jasmine: I liked the accents used by the singers. They were funny.

6D Bhavia: I liked the colourful costumes and sets used during the opera.
